It's also giving me the chance to build relationships with bloggers, and find corners of the internet that I never knew existed. I'm so thankful to Sarah Arrow for setting this up, and hope to continue it for the months and even years to come." Sarah Buchanan-Smith "I knew I wanted to blog and that blogging would be good for my business but I had no idea where to start. So, I subscribed to Sarah Arrow's 30-Day blogging challenge and I've been blown away. Every morning I get a really clear, succinct email giving me great tips on everything I need to know to get myself up and blogging like a pro. rest assured, I never feel overwhelmed, just hugely grateful for lots of quality, actionable information."Ida Horner "My blogging activity had taken a nose dive. Although I wanted to revive it, I was lacking in motivation. Being part of the 30 Day blogging challenge changed all that. I have more visitors and comments on the blog. Customer Reviews

I came across this book as a recommendation from a fellow book club member when I mentioned that I was interested in doing my own blog.It seems that Zero to Blogger in 30 Days! is one of the best kept secrets going! Everyone in the blogging community all seem to know about it.As I was going to be setting up my own blog and being a complete novice when it comes to the blogging world I bought this book to work alongside setting it up. Zero to Blogger in 30 days! is great for total beginners as it goes through every process you need to know in setting up a blog, but the great thing with this book is you don't need some masters degree to be able to understand it as it's so simple to understand. Not only do you get an introduction to setting it all up there is also a 30 day challenge to complete to really push your knowledge and help you get the most out of your blog. When you start the challenge there is a link so that you can register that you are doing the challenge so that you will also get your daily challenge sent to you by email. Not only do you have the book and the daily emails there is also a fantastic Facebook group created by the author called 30 Day Blogging Challenge where you post your daily challenge and can get help from fellow bloggers as well as the author. The great thing about this group is you get to see a vast range of blogs on all sorts of topics and businesses. I for one started off this challenge very nervous and scared, and will admit to struggling with some of the challenges. By the end though I can't believe how far I've come and some of the great things I've learned along the way. My proudest moment was the infographic challenge, which even though basic I am so proud that I could do it.
