Customer Reviews

Why don't they write books like this now? Written by two artists that wanted to make their own frames, this is an excellent "how-to" book with all one needs to start making your own frames. It gives you a lot of ideas to start your own creative process of making frames that can enhance your artwork.

This is a book that I had once before but lost. I was delighted to find another copy. I highly recommend it.

This book comes in handy for my hobby came right on time and in the shape that it was said to be great book, great price, fast delivery.

I bought this book used. It was previously in a public library and is in excellent condition, and at a fraction of the cost of a new one!
