If Grandma had to pick a favorite holiday, then she would have to say that in her family it is Halloween that the girls enjoy the most - the costumes, the Trick-or-Treating, the parties! The same must clearly be said of Terrance Zepke, who has included hundreds of ideas, recipes and tips for party planning, decorations, crafts, games in Happy Halloween!: Hundreds of Perfect Party Recipes, Delightful Decorating Ideas & Awesome Activities. There is a real art to planning a party, something that Terrance clearly knows her way around. She not only includes a game plan, she includes links for free printable invitations and a calculator to help you determine just how many drinks you need to allow for. The book is divided into several sections, which you can access from the interactive menu in the front of the book. Section I. Party Planning Section II - Party Recipes, further divided into Desserts, Light Appetizers, Heavy Appetizers and Drinks Section III - Decorating Ideas Section IV - Fun Activities for both children and Teens/Adults Section V - Halloween History & Trivia All of the included recipes are easy to do. About half rely on basics like refrigerated cookie dough & cake mixes. You'll find goodies like Swamp Cake, Candy Corn Pizza, Pumpkin Whoopie Pies and a Pumpkin Fudge that is super-yummy! (You can use the leftover pumpkin from the Pumpkin Fudge to make Pumpkin Pillows - little caramel & pumpkin stuffed fried turnovers made from wonton wrappers.) Monster Meatballs has been one of Grandma's favorite party dishes for several decades.
